

American Manufacturers Closed Up, and American Mechanics Thrown Out of Employment, to Benefit British Workmen.

And the next day it snowed.

Illinois headed the list of surprises.

The whole Republican ticket in Kenton county was defeated.

Ohio seems to have slumped too, and the tall has gone with the hide. It is possible, however, that the "state of Lewis" remains true.

Although the Democratic party gained power this election, yet they haven't full sway of everything. Newport has got all Republican officers, and will move along just the same.

The American people have turned their backs on progress and given their decision to the anti-American ideas so popular across the Atlantic in a manner we thought them incapable of.

Here's hope, and it shows the force of the tariff "percentage" argument. In Covington the prohibition vote increased nearly thirteen hundred percent; that is, the time before it was 10, and this time 123.

Judging from the number of colored men and guns seen on our street Tuesday, one would have thought this a community of hunters. The game that was bagged, however, consisted chiefly of the $2 bills furnished by the Democrats.

Theodore Hallam, who occasionally stumbles on the truth, gives this as the Free-trade program:

March 5th.
12 m.—All Tariffs removed.
1 p. m.—Begin printing wildcat money.
2 p. m.—Revoke all pensions to Union veteran soldiers.
2:30 p. m.—Grant pensions to all Confederate veterans.
3 p. m.—Repeal the fifteenth amendment.
4 p. m.—Give office to every Democrat and every man who promises to become a Democrat.

Among the early fruits of Tuesday's Free-trade victory in the election of Mr. Cleveland comes the announcement that the American Tin-plate Factory at Elwood, Ind., has shut down.

This is followed by the statement that the Diamond Plate Glass Factory of the same city will also close operations tomorrow. This will work a great hardship upon the laboring classes, who at the opening of winter will be thrown out of employment, as upwards of one thousand people find employment in the two factories. In addition to this it will strike a blow at the prosperity of Elwood from which it will never fully recover. The outcome of the affair is awaited with much anxiety by the citizens, who fear that the prosperity of Elwood is at an end, and the unexampled progress of the last few years will but add to the disappointments that will follow such a result.

But let the good Free-trade work go on!

As the Republicans expected and predicted, our British friends are pleased immensely.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that "both the merchants and the unemployed workingmen of England have reason to rejoice at the Democratic victory, as, with the possibility of the reopening of the American markets to the goods of Birmingham, Bradford and Manchester, capitalists will get a chance to procure some return on their money invested, and the workingmen will have an opportunity to get a decent price for their labor without the necessity of striking."

And this simply means that for every British workman who is employed under the new order of things, an American workman will be thrown out of employment.

As the workingmen themselves did a good deal of the voting that brought about this condition of things, it is hoped that they will be satisfied with its results.

FIRST YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1892.

ONE CENT.

The Democrats will be in indisputable control of all branches of the Government for the first half of Cleveland's new term at least. They will thus be entirely responsible for all the legislation of the two years beginning with March, 1893, and the people will be able to hold them to a rigid accountability for the management of its affairs.

Old King Coal is a merry old soul, And a merry old soul is he; He calls for his stove and he calls for his grate, And he calls for his prices three: His eyes he winks as his cash he chinks, And he rubs his hands with glee, And he says to himself, "Ain't I all right? There isn't any tariff on me."

AN EX-FLEMING COUNTRYMAN.

Captain and Ex-Mayor Luther F. Warder in Trouble Out in Indiana.

Many readers of THE LEDGER will remember Captain Luther F. Warder, who kept a hotel in Flemingsburg along in the latter part of the '60's.

He was a rampant Republican; but he moved to Jeffersonville, Ind., and became a diabolical Democrat.

So strong was his love for Democracy and office that he was elected Mayor and re-elected several successive terms. And thus he grew to be a prominent figure.

Now he has been made the defendant in a rather sensational case in the Clark County Circuit Court. The suit is brought in the name of the State of Indiana in the case of S. S. Johnson, Guardian of Mary Bonner, the facts being about as follows:

A few years ago Mr. Warder was appointed Guardian of Miss Bonner, who is the granddaughter of the late Dr. McBride, who now resides with her grandmother, Mrs. Maria McBride, in Jeffersonville. At the time of receiving his appointment Mr. Warder gave bond, with Jacob S. Fry and Sam Goldback as sureties.

Afterward he sold certain of the real estate of his ward to the Ohio Falls Car Company, and at the time of making this sale was required by the court to give additional bond. At the last term of the court Mr. Warder resigned the trust and Mr. Johnson was appointed his successor. Although Mr. Warder resigned his trust, it is alleged that he failed to account for the funds that came into his hands both from the personal estate and the sale of real estate. It is said the alleged shortage reaches $900.

FORMER RATES OF POSTAGE.

What It Cost, "In the Good Old Times," to Write to Your Friends.

At the request of a friend and subscriber, and to settle a controversy, we give below some information that may be new to the young readers of THE LEDGER.

The Postoffice Department of the United States was organized under act of Congress in 1789.

The rates of postage, from that time up to 1816, were based upon the number of miles traveled, and for letters composed of a single piece of paper were as follows:

Under 40 miles.....	8 cents
" 90 ".....	10 "
" 150 ".....	12 1/2 "
" 300 ".....	17 "
" 400 ".....	20 "
Over 500 ".....	25 "

In 1816 these rates for letters composed of a single piece of paper were modified as follows:

Not over 30 miles.....	6 1/2 cents
Over 30 and under 50 miles.....	10 "
" 80 ".....	12 1/2 "
" 150 ".....	17 1/2 "
" 400 ".....	25 "

There was an additional rate for every additional piece of paper, and if the letter weighed an ounce, four times these rates.

The above rates were in force until 1845, when, for letters not exceeding 1 ounce in weight, the rate was made 5 cents for a distance of less than 300 miles, and 10 cents for over 300 miles, with additional postage for additional weight.

FORMERLY OF MAYSVILLE.

Lieutenant-Colonel J. Perry Fyffe and His Domestic Trouble in Tennessee.

A special from Camp Anderson, Tenn., where the state militia is stationed to preserve order among the coal miners, gives news of a social sensation, in which former Maysville parties are prominent figures.

When the call was made for a garrison Lieutenant-Colonel J. Perry Fyffe of Shelbyville went to the front.

He was assigned to regular duty, and it was not long before the shoulder-strapped young man brought his wife to stay with him at the post. Mrs. Fyffe was young and handsome. Her face and figure attracted attention at every gathering. She is the daughter of a wealthy Shelbyville gentleman, William Bryant. The young wife allowed other men than her husband to share her attentions, among them Captain Keller Anderson, commanding the post.

The discovery of the breach of faith caused a big row in camp.

Fyffe's mother came and took his little baby to her Kentucky home.

The young officer went to Jefferson Barracks where he flitted into the Regular Army, and the wife was taken home to her papa. A divorce suit is soon to follow.

All of the parties are members of the upper ten of the volunteers of the state.

JOHN BALLENGER the Jeweler is on the sick list.

THE Cythnians are clamoring for a new Courthouse.

AN effort is being made to connect Ironton and Ashland by telephone.

REV. W. S. PRIEST was taken suddenly ill at Covington and is confined to his bed.

JOSEPH FINNELL, the popular United States Court Clerk, is dangerously ill at Covington.

H. C. KIMBROUGH has bought the Dr. G. W. Adair property for $4,000 cash, and the Doctor will not return to Carlisle.

IN accordance with his long-continued custom, Uncle Dick Dawson has sent to Ireland photographs of the late candidates for President.

THE Rev. Dr. Joseph J. Bullock, formerly a prominent Presbyterian divine, died at Lexington. Ten years ago he retired from the Ministry and took up his residence in Washington. At the time of his death he was on a visit to his son, C. B. Bullock.

JAMES LANGDON and Patrick Murphy engaged in a political discussion at Mt. Zion, and Murphy, for want of better argument, punctuated his remarks with personal abuse and a murderous knife. It is thought that Langdon, who is a Republican, will die. At last accounts Murphy was enjoying his freedom.

Mrs. R. C. Rhoe.

Of Milford, Neb., says she suffered greatly from a complication of diseases of female weakness and liver and kidney troubles. Her health was fully restored by using Dr. Hale's Household Tea, the most pleasant and most effective medicine known. 25 and 50 cent packages at Power & Reynolds's Drugstore.

COLONEL LABAN T. MOORE.

His Death Yesterday Morning at Catlettsburg—Burial Saturday Morning.

THE LEDGER several days ago announced the serious illness of Colonel Laban T. Moore at his home in Catlettsburg.

It is now our painful duty to report his death, which occurred yesterday morning. Mr. Moore was widely known and universally respected.

He represented his District in Congress before the war, and has since held several important and responsible positions, always serving with credit.

His illness was the outcome of a severe cold, contracted during the exercises attendant on the dedication of the World's Fair Buildings at Chicago.

The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

THE STATE.

A Large Increase in the Democratic Majority Over 1888.

The most definite returns obtainable show that the Cleveland electors have carried Kentucky by a plurality which may exceed 35,000 or about 7,000 in excess of the plurality of 1888. A heavy vote was polled in most all Precincts.

The returns from the Congressional Districts show that but one Republican Congressman has been elected in the state. This one curiosity is Hon. Silas Adams of the Eleventh District.

The new ballot system of voting seems to have given general satisfaction though the Republicans did not profit by it as was hoped.

THE burned hotel at Winchester is to be rebuilt at a cost of $30,000.

THE PRESIDENT'S COACHMAN.

Reminiscences of Albert Hawkins, Who Served Through Many Administrations.

Lexington Leader.—Albert Hawkins, the colored man who, since General Grant's first term, has been the head coachman at the White House, and in consequence an autocrat among the lesser lights of the stable, retired about a year ago on account of age.

Change of politics happily made no difference in Albert's place, as there appears to have been a tradition handed down to each incoming administration that whoever else went the coachman was to remain. Whether or not he was credited with any peculiar qualities as a mascot does not appear, but one thing was assured and that was the very great veneration in which Albert held the office of Chief Magistrate.

In his eyes the President of the United States—without regard to the individual—was the greatest potentate on earth, and as such entitled upon all occasions to right of way when driving. This idea led to some hairbreadth escapes, as a street barricade for repairs presented no obstacles to progress in Albert's eyes. He would go crashing through the barriers and when expostulated with by the family, stoutly maintained that the President's carriage had a right to go anywhere, and was never to waive the right of way to anyone. Though Albert would by no means acknowledge it, his eyesight, especially at night, has been poor for several years past, when he would lose himself in the most unaccountable manner in the most familiar localities.

One night just before his successor was appointed Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. McKee attended an evening reception, and of course rode home in the President's carriage. Suddenly it struck the ladies that they were most unnecessarily long time in reaching the White House, and Mrs. McKee, looking out of the windows in the darkness, discovered to her astonishment that they were at Scott Circle. While she watched Albert made the circuit twice. Then she called to the driver, asking his reason for such a strange proceeding.

He was unwillingly obliged to admit that he had lost his way, but concluded to drive round and round the circle until he came across a familiar looking street, when he would immediately turn down.

HARVEY BOLDMAN, while riding along a road in Carter county, saw the ghost of a young girl. It is not stated what brand of whisky Boldman had been drinking.

American Cholera.

From The Daily Beeville, Whitcomb, Wash.—"T. C. Burnett, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, was taken violently ill at Clearbrook. He had all the symptoms of Asiatic cholera, and for an hour or two it was feared he would die. They finally gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which revived him until a physician arrived." That is precisely what the manufacturers of that medicine recommend for cholera. Send for a physician but give their medicine until the physician arrives. If cholera becomes prevalent in this country next summer this preparation will be in great demand because it can always be depended upon. For sale by Power & Reynolds's Drugstore.
